SUPREME COURT REFUSES TO POSTPONE FRANK HEARD

U. S. EXPECTED TO REPUDIATE ACTS OF MEXICAN CONGRESS

Huerta's Intention to Recognize Law-Making Body Regarded as Inconsistent by Washington Officials

NOTE TO THE DIPLOMATS IS RECEIVED AT CAPITOL

Senator Bacon Declares This Government Will Proceed Cautiously, but With Same Fixed Purpose in View

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Recognition of the Mexican constitutionalists and the removal of the embargo on arms to the revolutionists is not contemplated by President Wilson at the present time. His administration is in talks with the cabinet.

A copy of Huerta's note to the diplomats was received by the state department today from Mr. O'Shaughnessy, secretary Bryan would not comment on it further than to say that Huerta's dispatch from Mexico City asserted it accurately.

Informal comment on Huerta's statement, however, emphasizes that while the decisions of the president and vice president were to be delayed until the situation was clear, the government was not to be regarded as an intransigent of which the reputation of all acts of the new government would be forthcoming in the United States.

FOREIGN POWERS ADVISED.
The president made it plain that the government would not be advised with the latest word of the steps taken by the United States to bring about peace in Mexico, but that the policy of the government was dependent on developments.

With the situation in Mexico, the president was especially anxious to keep the situation as quiet as possible, and that it really was, a sensational report, the president pointed out, that the government was in advance of action by the administration.

The first squadron, four troops, of the Fifteenth cavalry, led by Colonel James G. Garrard, left Fort Bliss, Tex., to relieve the Third squadron of the Fifth cavalry at the Mexican border. The movement is in accordance with orders issued a month ago.

Two squadrons of the Fifteenth cavalry at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and seven at Leavenworth, Kan., are to relieve the other two squadrons of the Fifth cavalry on the border and the Second cavalry to be relieved by the Tenth already now at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. Orders have not been issued for the transfer of the Second and Fifth cavalry to their northern and southern stations.

LAST WORD NOT SAID.
One official familiar with the exchanges with Huerta said today that the latest representations from Washington were not such as to place President Wilson in the attitude of having said the last word. He said the language of the last representations did not directly call on Huerta to resign, but made clear that if he had the good of Mexico at heart and took the good of the government in Mexico City, he would resign from the situation. The representative also said he had been directed to Huerta that if he remained in power the United States would repudiate all his powers as well as the new congress.

Chairman Bacon, of the senate foreign relations committee, who called at the White House early today, said this government would proceed cautiously, but with the same fixed purpose.

An official statement was issued by Mr. Bacon, saying that on November 29 next the legislative power assumed by President Huerta will be repudiated and the new congress will pass on the result of the presidential election.

ATTITUDE OF HUERTA.
The dispatch received by Senator Bacon, says the statement, "and signed by Porfirio Muniz, who is believed to be assumed, represent the attitude of President Huerta and indicate the nature of his reply to the inquiry of the government of the United States regarding his purposes in view of the recent presidential election."

"As the public realize the recent election was imperfect, and should the Mexican congress so decide for its withdrawal, the government will call a new election in constitutional form. The government will proceed with its purpose to secure the nation as the imperative condition to a legal and valid election. The chief of the government is determined that no obstacle will be interposed to complicate the situation or disturb the complete design of a valid choice of president."

BEST AUTO MARKET IS GEORGIA FARMER, SAYS SHOW VISITOR

Atlanta Exhibit Will Sell Cars by Hundreds, Is Opinion of Factory Expert - Exhibits Practically Complete Now

"If Atlanta automobile salesmen don't clean up at this show and wire for more cars, put me down as a bum," he continued. "There's more real money in the cotton belt of this section this fall than anywhere else they know, and they're counting on buying the former's brand-new autos. And they're doing it, too."

And that's the main object of a motor show, you know. Drawing a crowd to hear the music is one thing, and it helps pay expenses, but selling cars is 25 per cent. It looks like the show is taking from every exhibit, with several agents looking over for more than they have on hand.

The show wasn't really open Monday morning, but for all that a hundred or so visitors spent the forenoon looking over the motors and asking questions. They weren't satisfied with trying to catch a tire or two, a horn, or a horn. They wanted to know all about differentials and clutching systems and systems and prices and deliveries. Most of them were from small towns and villages, and they looked like ready money.

Some of the mechanical students, a hundred or so of them, are going to the show to get a look at the latest in two or three, just to study the most perfect bit of mechanism in 1913 or thereabouts.

WOMAN HEARS OF OWN "MURDER" FROM OFFICERS

Detestives are Probing Cause of Gray's Death

Member of Coroner's Jury Is Not Satisfied With Verdict of "Accident"

A member of the coroner's jury which investigated the death of S. A. Gray, the elevator operator who was killed in a fall down the elevator shaft of the elevator building at the corner of Peachtree and Baker streets, today said he was not satisfied with the verdict of "accident" and desired the chief of police to investigate. Chief Beavers refused to divulge the names of the detectives assigned two detectives on the case with instructions to report to him as soon as possible.

Gray met his death in a fall from the ninth floor of the building to the top of the freight elevator, six or seven floors below. There were no witnesses and some degree of mystery surrounds the body was taken to Runnels, Ga., Monday morning for funeral and interment.

STATE AND DEFENSE REQUEST DELAY IN FRANK'S ARGUMENTS

Attorneys Call at Supreme Court and Ask That the Case Be Put on January Instead of December Calendar

POSTPONEMENT IS DENIED; CASE COMES UP DEC. 15

Friends of Frank Plan to Urge Police to Secure Confession From Jim Conley After He Is Sentenced as Accessory

The supreme court of Georgia Monday night denied what amounted to a joint request of the state and the defense to postpone the argument in the Leo M. Frank case until the January term of this court.

The rule of the court cannot be varied, the clerk said, the attorneys after the judges of the state's highest court had held a conference, and if the papers reach the court by December 15 the argument will be set for that date.

Another development of Monday in the criminal case was the statement of many attorneys that after Jim Conley, who is alleged to have shot the victim, was sentenced to the state prison, it will be arranged Tuesday, it is possible that his arraignment may be postponed to later in the week.

While there has been little probability of Conley's making a murder charge against Frank, which would have been a serious matter, the state's attorneys, who are now in the state prison, will be able to secure a confession from Conley after he is sentenced as accessory.

BEILESS IS ACQUITTED IN GREAT RUSSIAN CASE

Accused of "Ritual Murder," Man Is Freed After Sensational Trial

KIEV, Russia, Nov. 10.—Mendel Beile, charged with the murder of Andrew Yushinsky, a religious sacrifice, was acquitted by the jury today.

The trial of Mendel Beile, a Russian of the Hebrew faith, for the alleged murder of Yushinsky, a Christian, began on October 2. The case caused an immense sensation, which stirred the whole of Russia. The mutilated body of the boy was discovered on March 25, 1911, in a cave on a suburb holding outside Kiev.

Beile was shortly afterwards arrested and charged with the murder and was kept in close confinement until the trial.

Extensive precautions were taken by the authorities to prevent the attendance of a society of anti-semitic Russians known as the Black Hundred.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Twenty refugees from war-ridden Mexico reached New York today on the Ward Line steamship. Among them were several women.

The refugees fled from Monterrey after weeks when capture by revolutionists appeared imminent, in great haste, leaving their belongings behind. They were without winter clothing and the cold they had suffered and suffered keenly the first touch of real winter.

Mystery Surrounds Long Distance Telephone Call From Her Husband

Either the peculiar pranks of telegraph and telephone wires or the work of some practical joker seems a square of yellow paper pinned to the residence of W. J. Hepburn, 390 Peachtree street, late Sunday night.

A negro maid, who answered the door bell, ran back screaming at the sight of the formidable array of blue coats and brass buttons, and when Mrs. Hepburn came down stairs, she was told by the officers they had come to search for clues to the identity of the person who had killed her.

"Mrs. Hepburn declared emphatically she had not been murdered, nor likely to be, and an investigation commenced. It developed that a neighbor had been shot by the formidable array of blue coats and brass buttons, and when Mrs. Hepburn came down stairs, she was told by the officers they had come to search for clues to the identity of the person who had killed her."

The automobile show grounds are invited by the ladies to come in and feast.

CRANKS TURN THE WORLD, SAYS OGDEN IN SERMON

The world owes much to cranks, said Dr. Hunter Ogdén in a sermon Sunday night at the Central Presbyterian church, and in developing this theme he declared that one of the greatest movements of the twentieth century is the "crank."

"Practically every great man who has contributed to the world's progress, scientific or moral, has been called a crank," by the people who scoffed at his efforts," said Dr. Ogdén. "Just a few years ago a man who declared that it was possible to abolish the sale of intoxicating liquor by law was called a crank—and, in fact, he was."

"For a crank," continued the minister, "is a person who thinks differently from the majority of people, and by the success of opinion at that time the sale of liquor was given absolutely free sale. But so far have the results of public opinion now swung in the opposite direction that the liquor traffic is being curbed at every point and is rapidly being run to bay by the mighty moral wave that is sweeping over the country."

The flames in the teeth of a blustering gale that blew from the east, forcing the water on their coats and driving the flames higher and higher. The fire was blocked for a time and all through the burning, the flames were seen over the embankments around the house.

While the monetary damage is covered by insurance, Dr. Hopkins declared he felt most keenly the loss of the pictures and belongings which were in his room and which were the first to burn.

Standing in the ruins of his home, he showed a Journal reporter a piece of marbled bookend by fire and dripping with water.

"There was a picture of my little boy, Russell," he said huskily. "It was taken when he was only four years old and I couldn't have lost it for a thousand dollars."

"As far as the burning of this house goes," he continued, "I don't care a snap if my finger, but neither do I care for the pictures of my friends and relatives that were in the room."

Dr. Hopkins stated that there were twenty-three of these pictures in his bedroom. He also said he had lost some valuable writings in the fire.

Some forty papers in the hall of the Hopkins' home were unburned by the flames.

LOVEJOY AND WEATHERS MAY KEEP OLD PLACES

At the fourth quarterly conference of the East Atlanta Methodist church Sunday evening resolutions were adopted requesting the approaching annual conference of the north Georgia synod to return to the old places.

Dr. Lovejoy has been preaching elder of the district for years and has had a great success. Mr. Weathers has been pastor of the East Atlanta church for three years, in which time the membership has grown rapidly until a new church is projected, for which ground will be broken early in the new year.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a wage earning woman who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It creates the vitality that makes work easy.—(Adv.)

SUNDAY SCHOOLS SHRINK ON FIRST COLD SUNDAY

Attendance Record Shows Loss, but Even That Beats Last Year's Figure

Sunday's cold weather caused a shrinkage in the number of Atlantians who attended Sunday school.

The decrease in attendance was especially noticeable as the Sunday schools for the past several months have been crowded but, even with comparatively small number in attendance Sunday, the Sunday school record is being maintained for statistics show that there were more at Sunday school yesterday than on the same Sunday last year.

The record of attendance for both 1912 and 1913 in fifteen Sunday schools of the city is as follows:

	1912	1913
First Methodist	1,400	1,408
Central Presbyterian	1,340	1,348

BAPTIST WOMEN MARK MISSIONS ANNIVERSARY

Georgia Union Workers Begin
Two-Day Celebration at Tabernacle With Many Visitors

The Baptist women of Georgia will begin Tuesday at the Tabernacle, the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union, the auxiliary to the Southern Baptist association. Seven hundred delegates will be entertained during the convention, and will last through Tuesday evening, and at the same time all over the south other women will assemble, for similar celebrations.

Prominent Baptist women from all parts of Georgia will attend the jubilee, and the women of the city are planning to make their visit interesting and entertaining.

Mrs. W. J. Neal will preside at Tuesday's sessions, for which interesting programs have been prepared.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. A. J. Jones, of Atlanta, will deliver an address on the "Pioneering of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union."

Mrs. J. C. Lander will give the history of the organization. Miss Mary Buhlman, of Baltimore, a missionary who meets all the largest cities entering that port and takes care of the immigrants, will have a prominent place, and her address is anticipated with interest. She will lead the prayer service Tuesday morning.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Salina Priest, of Shanghai, China, will talk on "Permanent Foreign Mission Equipment," and Mrs. H. H. McClellan, of Gray and Miss F. E. S. Hock will be the other speakers.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Sam D. Jones will preside at the meeting and Miss Buhlman, Miss Priest, Miss Hock and Mrs. M. R. McClure, principal of the Missionary Training school, will deliver addresses.

On Wednesday will begin the regular sessions of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union, and these will last through Friday morning.

The hospitality committee asks that Atlanta women volunteer as hostesses for the visitors, as more homes are needed in which to entertain them than delegates.

The committee also asks that Atlanta women volunteer as hostesses for the visitors, as more homes are needed in which to entertain them than delegates.

A committee of the Decatur board of trade will meet in the office of the organization at 8 o'clock Monday night to arrange details of Decatur's big "feed" on November 10.

A distinctive feature of the occasion at Decatur will be that the women of the town will be present.

Every citizen of Decatur will be asked to participate in the movement to boost Georgia products.

MUST SEEK ANOTHER ORGANIST FOR ATLANTA

Prof. Zech, of Chicago, Released From Contract Because of Breakdown

Prof. William Zech, of Chicago, the famous organist engaged by the Atlanta Music Festival association to succeed Dr. Percy Starnes as municipal organist, has suffered a nervous breakdown and will not come to Atlanta.

A telegram received by officials of the Music Festival association announced Prof. Zech's illness and requested that he be released from his contract here. The request was granted and the association will immediately make efforts to find another concert organist.

Only a musician of the highest talent will be engaged. Before a selection is made several of the foremost organists of the country will be brought here to play, and from among these one will be selected to fill the place of municipal organist for Atlanta.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. A. J. Jones, of Atlanta, will deliver an address on the "Pioneering of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union."

Connoisseurs and lovers of art in general are invited to see the

personally selected in Vienna by our foreign representative. In their classic, chaste lines these Bronzes portray the purest art. Some are reproductions of famous statues and paintings, but most of them are original conceptions and bear the artist's name.

Variouly developed in bronze, and bronze with carved ivory. Many of them rest on bases of Onyx. The subjects embrace the famous bas-reliefs of Wagner, Brahms, Beethoven, etc.; also characters from their Operas. An Arab on a Prayer Rug conveys a touching bit of sentiment, while an old man kneeling to a water nymph causes a smile.

The mechanical arts are represented by classical subjects. Indicating Electricity, Surveying, the Telephone and Manufacturing. Then there are desk pieces including cigar cutters and trays and paper cutters and a score and one ornamental piece.

So far as we know there is no other such display south of Washington, and very few such displays—outside of museums and exclusive art stores—in the whole country. Being our own importation these Bronzes are marked very reasonably.

From $1.50 to $75. Postscript—Many of these bronze art pieces are now displayed in one of our windows. (Main Floor, Center.)

Plenty of Hot Water—Quick The Simplest, Safest and Cheapest Way

HITCHCOCK LAYS BACK IN CURRENCY HARNES

Senator Balks at Caucus and Declares He Will Not Yield, "Even to President"

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senator Hitchcock today attacked the proposal to take the currency question into a Democratic caucus. He is one Democrat on the banking committee standing out against the administration bill. In a statement of his position on the floor of the senate here today, he declared he would not yield his convictions "to meet the views of the president of the United States."

Mr. Hitchcock spoke after the committee had worked in vain all morning to reconcile conflicting views. He said the deadlock was due to his declining to change his view of fundamentals of the administration bill. "I would not permit myself to be bound by the decisions of a secret caucus on an important matter of legislation like this," declared Mr. Hitchcock. "I am assured by several senators that they are equally opposed to a secret legislative proceeding. The senate is the proper place to discuss this bill."

The senator concluded by suggesting that the senate might order a report in a certain time or discharge the committee.

A caucus, which could neither report the bill nor compel the committee to do so, he declared would result only in delay. Reviewing the senate committee's amendments to the bill, Mr. Hitchcock spoke of "outside influences" which he brought in the committee when its members were told the president could not accept the decision of the majority.

39 Bales on One Wagon
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
TULSA, Ok., Nov. 10.—A light that attracted much attention in Tulsa yesterday was the large load of cotton, weighing thirty-nine bales, on one wagon drawn by six mules, brought here by James F. Nobles.

The governor's train was held five minutes while Mr. Stanton was driven to the warehouse to see the cotton.

Gen. J. Van Holt Nash To be Grand-Marshal Of Corn Show Parade

GEN. J. VAN HOLT NASH.

General J. Van Holt Nash, adjutant general of Georgia, has been selected to act as grand marshal of the annual parade of the corn club boys of Georgia, which will take place the afternoon of Thursday, December 4.

The entire Fifth regiment will turn out for this parade, which will consist of at least four divisions. There will be the usual squadron of police and the military, including the cadet companies of Atlanta's military schools, prominent state and city officials headed by Governor Slaton and Mayor Woodward, the Boy Scouts of Atlanta and vicinity and the corn club boys from all parts of the state who will be this year at least 1,000 strong.

Last year the Georgia corn parade was photographed by moving picture cameras and the parade was shown all over the country. In it the boys carried banners showing what each county had done, and these were plainly visible in the moving pictures. This year's parade will be larger and better than that of last year, and it is anticipated that it will likewise be shown throughout the country on moving picture screens.

WARMER DAY AHEAD; STORM CRIPPLES WIRES

Mercury Drops Well Below the Freezing Point, but is Going Up Again by Tuesday

The cold snap which swept down on Atlanta Sunday will change to warmer weather by Tuesday morning, according to predictions at the weather bureau shortly after noon Monday. While the thermometer showed a minimum temperature of 27 and 5-16 degrees Sunday night, the forecast is for no fall below 30 degrees Monday night.

"It will be just about 30," declared the weather man.

At 1 o'clock Monday afternoon the thermometer marked 28 degrees. The clerk at the weather bureau declared that the high wind of Sunday morning would die during the afternoon, although it was predicted still breezy, would continue throughout the night.

The cold of Sunday was intensified by a high biting wind, and the streets of the city were practically deserted.

Frosts were reported Sunday night as far south as the Georgia and Florida line, and the government forecast from Washington predicts frost in Florida down to the twenty-sixth parallel. In several of the south Atlantic states there were snow flurries, but the government forecast is for clear weather during this week.

In 1912, on November 10, the temperature dropped only 10 to 15 degrees, while in 1911 it was 20 degrees on the same date, and for several years back it has not been as low as 27 1-2 on November 10.

The high winds which accompanied the cold were interfered to some extent with the telegraph and telephone wires, but reports that have been received indicate no damage of more than minor importance.

Lake Region Buffeted by Blizzard for Two Days

Harried along by a tremendous snow storm that developed since Saturday in the eastern part of the state, was centered today around the lower lakes. As the storm swept eastward, it lowered temperatures to an unseasonable figure and left piles of snow that halted railway trains, cut towns and cities off from communication with the outside world and did thousands of dollars worth of damage.

Cleveland was entirely isolated so far as telegraph communication from the territory south was concerned, and many cities in Ohio were in the same plight.

Pittsburg flourished in a foot of snow. The blizzard left eight inches of snow along Ohio river points east of Louisville while some points along

WILSON HAS CONFESSED, DEPUTY SHERIFF SAYS

Former Cashier of Bacon Produce Co. Said to Have Admitted Embezzlement

According to Deputy Sheriff Lee Haygood, who Saturday arrested R. A. Wilson, former cashier of the S. W. Bacon Produce company, who was indicted by the grand jury for embezzlement of the company, Wilson has confessed to taking the money and is ready to take punishment.

"I am guilty," Wilson is said to have confessed, "I am going to take my medicine. I am not even going to get a lawyer."

The indictment against Wilson was returned last Friday following the appearance of Mr. Bacon and an auditor before the grand jury. Until September 6 Wilson had been cashier of the company and he went to Florida and his company employed a special auditor to go over his books. He was found to be $7,677.15 short, the shortage covering a long period during which Wilson was in charge of the finances.

According to Bacon, Wilson spent the money in high living, renting automobiles for "joy rides," and for expenditures beyond his means. None of the money has been recovered.

Lake Erie's southern borders reported twenty inches precipitation.

Abnormally low temperatures throughout the storm are added to discomforts that the blizzard carried. There are reports from the upper Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys reported from the line extended to northern Oklahoma and central portions of the east coast states. New Orleans reported a heavy frost.

RAILROAD WAGE FIGHT WILL BE COMPROMISED

Arbitrators of Dispute Affecting 73,000 Trainmen End Conferences in New York

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The arbitrators who will settle the wage dispute of the eastern railroads and 73,000 conductors and trainmen wound up its work today after announcing that a decision would not be made public until tonight. No intimation was given of what the award would be.

From the nature of the controversy a compromise was expected, but none of the arbitrators would say how far the employees' had gained their demands. Under the federal law which governs the arbitration proceedings will be filed here in the United States district court.

The conductors and trainmen have asked for higher wages on all the forty-three railroads north of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi. It was said today that only a few minor parts of the final award remained unsettled, and that these would be cleared up before the end of the day.

TWO STORES ENTERED BY BURGLARS IN NIGHT

The Wanda Davis Candy company, 217 Peachtree street, reported to the police Monday that a burglar had entered through a back window Sunday night and stolen $40 which was concealed in a clear box.

The store of Lloyd Strickland, 508 Decatur street, was found entered early Monday morning by officers on the beat. Mr. Strickland could not find anything missing. The burglar had evidently confined his operations to the gas meter, which had been tampered with but not opened.

WHITSON TRIAL OPENS IN MURRAY COUNTY COURT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
DALTON, Ga., Nov. 10.—The Whitson murder trial occupies the center of interest in Murray county superior court, which meets at Chatsworth this morning for the regular November term.

Tom Whitson, charged with murder, is one of Murray county's prominent farmers. It was at his saw mill that his fireman, a man named Smith, was killed by Whitson as Whitson was going to his house to pay him his wages after he had discharged him for inefficiency. Whitson's plea is self defense, claiming that Smith was raising a rifle to shoot him when he drew his pistol and shot him down. The prosecution has no evidence to the killing.

Accuse City Employees

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Charges that city employees are stealing $15,000 a year from the Boston Development and Sanitary company are made in the report of the Boston finance committee which was submitted to the city council. The report says city employees sell grease, rags, bottles, tin, zinc and other materials found in the city's refuse which the company had contracted for.

Coats For Winter's Woolly Weather

There is about this display of coats that something that one recognizes immediately as meaning satisfaction—"Now I shall find the coat I want."

It has been so planned.

Varieties are very great, greater than in many a season, because coats are "good" as the trade says when it refers to anything favored by the fashion authorities.

And now the weather is urging?

We have put ourselves in the way of the big coat business. No doubting that once you see what we have gathered.

Below are some that you will turn to with that sense of satisfaction we spoke of above.

At $12.50 Coats of black and brown bottle, kimono sleeves, cutaway effect, three-quarter length, velvet trimmed collars and cuffs. Three large velvet buttons placed at intervals down the sleeves instead of on the cuffs. Very smart.

At $15.00 Coats of two-toned, brown-bottle in blue and black; three-quarters length; cutaway; collars button close around the neck.

At $19.50 and $20.00. Two-toned and striped boucles, brown and black, blue and black, black and white; flat collars of some are of imitation civet-cat. Elegant Persian cloth coats and zibeline coats of wonderfully fine texture and rich linings—three-quarter length.

At $21.75 Exceptionally smart coats of wool plush. These are much favored novelties, in Copenhagen blue, old rose and black; trim linings; three-quarter length; kimono sleeves. You will like them.

At $25.00 Many styles, serviceable broadcloths and kerseys; Persian cloth—fine imported fabrics—matelassés; deep cuffs and flat collars are often of plush that has every appearance of fur; rich king's blue and old gold linings are prominent.

At $29.75 $33.50 and $37.50, are Persian cloth, zibeline and cloth coats that are copies of Paris styles. Their lines are superb; graceful kimono sleeves; collars and cuffs often of fur. Elegant affairs!

And a Just-Arrived Paris Success The New Corduroy Sports Coat

The races at Deauville brought it into prominence. Not hard to understand its success. The corduroy is a wide-welt heavy quality. The coat is longer than the sports coats we have known. Paris must change things. But its easy grace is its charm. A loose affair, with overhanging shoulders and set-in sleeves. The collar extends in very long revers below a belt placed a bit lower than usual. The only buttons on it are the two self-cover buttons on the belt. Paris through and through. In sand color and a French blue. The price is $29.75.

FIGHT ON LOCKER CLUBS OPENS AT MASS MEETING

Committee Appointed to Look
After Enforcement of Prohibition Law in Atlanta

Exhibits of unopened bottles of whisky, said to have been illicitly sold by Atlanta locker clubs, were displayed at the Georgia Anti-Saloon League's mass meeting at the Grand theater Sunday afternoon.

Several hundred citizens attended the meeting and after the adoption of resolutions pledging those present to engage in a vigorous campaign for the enforcement of the prohibition law, a committee was appointed to be known as the "law enforcement committee of Atlanta."

These named and urged to serve upon this committee: Thomas K. Green, R. R. Kiser, Walter Dumas, H. M. Dufosse, W. H. Davidson, Lloyd B. Jones, Charles W. Dantes, Hugh K. Walker, W. A. Ward, W. A. Albright, Lee Blagden, W. A. Ward, W. P. Anderson, Charles D. McKinney, R. A. Hemphill, W. R. Lottin, L. T. Stallings, W. H. Avery, George Gordon, J. A. Williams, J. E. Wilhelm, L. O. Bricker, W. H. Williams, J. H. Andrews and Ed T. Williams. This committee is expected to hold its first meeting Tuesday and outline its work.

Dr. H. M. Dufosse, chairman of the headquarters committee of the league, presided over the meeting and made the principal speech. He called attention to the exhibits of liquor, which he said had been purchased from various locker clubs by persons who were not members of these organizations. The names of the clubs, breweries and near-by saloons were openly violating the provisions of the prohibition law and the law enforcement committee was charged with the duty of enforcing the law.

Resolutions adopted by the meeting were in part as follows:

"That it is the sense of this mass meeting that these flagrant and persistent violations of law should be denounced as both criminal and treasonable, and worthy of execration by all law-abiding people; and that every possible legal step should be taken to restrain and punish all individual violators of these laws; and that the responsible or culpable representatives of all organizations or corporations engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors, or in the illegal dispensing of the same,

"That this meeting hereby calls upon the police authorities of the city to undertake the most searching inquiry into the charges that have been made against these law violators, and that the police and other social organizations be systematically visited, and that sales of liquor are being made openly on the streets. The attention of the present grand jury of Fulton county is also called to these charges, which are of an enormous character, and are a disgrace to the city."

At their meeting Monday morning the Methodist ministers of the city adopted resolutions endorsing the objects of the mass meeting at the Grand Sunday evening. These resolutions stated that the ministers were in hearty accord with the movement to bring about a rigid enforcement of the prohibition law.

Man Held for Robbery
Bob Fekis alias Charles Fekis, alias Charles Jackson, is being held by the movement in jail at Atlanta, suspected of the robbery on October 8 of the postoffice and two stores at Fifth Street Union City. Postoffice inspectors went to Marietta Monday to examine Fekis, who, they say, pawned several articles missing from the stores. The amount of money stolen was small.

Rod Right, Says Shuler
Recorder Nash Boyles' recent assertions concerning the old-fashioned way of raising children have drawn the attention of the pastor, Rev. Allen L. Shuler, pastor of the East Side Tabernacle, declared in his sermon Sunday that the recorder is wrong in thinking that anything can take the place of the rod in the upbringing of children.

Stop M'Whorter is Now Slogan of Tech Yellow Jackets

Georgia Wants Tech To Play At Ponce Park

Claim Ponce Facilities for Handling Large Crowd Are Better Than Grant Field, but Tech Will Not Consent to Change

The Athletic Association at the University of Georgia wants the game with Tech next Saturday to be played at Ponce de Leon instead of at Grant field.

It is understood they claim their contract provides for playing at Ponce unless the Grant field seating capacity should be greater, which Georgia men believe is not the case.

Georgia alumni in Atlanta express the belief that Georgia will pay the whole amount of the ground rent at Ponce de Leon, if necessary, as an inducement to persuade Tech to make the change. The Georgia men have no objection to Grant field, per se, but simply consider the street car and other facilities at Ponce de Leon more adequate to the handling of a large crowd.

According to W. N. Baxley, athletic director at Tech, there is no possibility of the transfer being made. Discussing the matter Monday.

"Our contract specifies Grant field, the advertising has all been done for that field, and Tech will not consent to a change. As to seating, the Grant field has 5,000 seats at Ponce de Leon when you eliminate the bleachers, which are supposed to be eliminated because of the unfitness for a football field.

Grant field has 5,000 seats, all of which are available, and the difference of 1,000 in 1914 in its favor. Also, the banks at Ponce de Leon are better than the overflow crowd, because of the hill-beds, whereas the banks at Grant field are all open, a street car facility, our gate receipts at Grant field this year have been larger than there were at Ponce de Leon, which would seem to indicate the people have no trouble in getting there."

Teams in East Hit Their Pace

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Despite the handicap of muddy gridirons, the play of the leading eastern university football teams Saturday demonstrated that all are running into satisfactory form for the final games of the 1913 season. Although defeat was the portion of several, the trend of improvement was evident, and both victor and vanquished can look forward to the more important struggles strong in the belief that each has reasonable grounds for forecasting a victory.

Considered broadly, the condition of the fields affected the play of the victors, and in no case was there a alarming reversal of form.

However, defeated teams developed surprising strength.

This was notably true in the Harvard-Princeton game. The Tigers overcame a stiff formation attack, which baffled the Crimson forwards during the first period. Had the field been dry, it is possible Princeton would have scored one or more touchdowns.

While Princeton pined the Harvard line, particularly the right tackle, who repeatedly during the early stages, the Crimson's secondary defense was unusually strong and shut off promising runs and forward passes in impressive style.

Some athletes were evident in their fighting and dropping kicking. A sharp contrast to the slow, conservative game plan of the Harvard and Harvard was the Dartmouth-Pennsylvania contest at Philadelphia, in which a judicious combination of old and new football tactics, the Harvard team defeated the Quakers 24 to 21.

The opinion is gaining among some leading football experts that the coaches of the leading eastern teams are so conservative they fail to take advantage of the new rules permitting open and overhauled football.

Paying a game similar to that of Harvard and Princeton, the reconstructed Yale team defeated Brown 17 to 0 on a water-soaked gridiron. The Providence eleven, comparatively weak this season, has already been defeated by Pennsylvania 24 to 6 and Colby 19 to 6, so that Yale did not accomplish a remarkable feat.

Correll, to whom it fell to defend eastern football honors in the only inter-sectional game of the day, failed lamentably by being defeated by Michigan 17 to 0.

CATS BREAK TECH'S JINKS, SAY TEACHER.

That the Tech line jink is broken is a sure thing now, according to "Ruto Ruto," the negro who looks after water, linemen and other commodities of the Yellow Jacket squad. And his reason for this broad assertion is based on his firm belief that cats bring good luck to the team while the team was practicing a man went across for a touchdown and when he went to pickup there was a strange noise that resembled a machine and the man was afraid to move, but with the usual amount of Tech's Heisman to hurry he arose to find that the noise was caused by three little kittens that were playing right beyond the goal post.

Where they came from nobody knows. There are no cats on campus, but the kittens were taken to the dressing rooms and are being raised for mascots by the boys in general and the negro in particular. Any one attempting to harm any of the cats would be immediately annihilated, for "Ruto Ruto" says that cats are good luck and that it is a sure sign of defeat if a cat is Tech's crop to football it means that the team is losing. The cats are kept sharp. Georgia Tech has got the supernatural in the game, say Tech supporters on the campus.

BRICKLEY, THE GREAT HALFBACK OF THE HARVARD ELEVEN

---BY RIPLEY

IT WAS BRICKLEY'S MAGICAL TOE THAT DEFEATED PRINCETON TIGERS

Brickley is back—and Harvard is happy. Brickley—the Frank Baker of the football world—the Crimson cracker who hits the ball on the nose and drives it far and away over the cross-bars with the same pain to the enemy and the same joy to his teammates as does the illustrious Trappe Terrier.

In Saturday's game against Princeton, on a field inches deep in mud, with the ball so slick and elusive that neither team could execute plays with any sort of certainty—in that heart-breaking battle it was Brickley's magical toe that turned the tide and sent the Crimson home with victory.

Five times Captain Hobey Baker, of Princeton, tried to kick a field goal and five times he failed. Three times Brickley tried, and once he succeeded, and that one field goal won the game, 3 to 0.

Not only is this ponderous Brickley a magical drop-kicker, but he is one of the fastest and strongest backs in the game, carrying his weight with expert train speed and going through an opposing line like a snow plow.

WOT DYE THINK OF THAT? FOR A BIG TELLOW HE IS FAST. HE IS THE "ANNE LAURIE" OF HARVARD. HE COULD BE ELECTED MAYOR IN DENVER.

PLAYERS' DEMANDS ARE EXPLAINED

Baseball Fraternity Gives Reasons for Asking New Contract

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Baseball players' fraternity yesterday made public a statement explaining why it has asked for a new contract from the national board of arbitration for changes in players' contracts, and the arguments it advances for their action.

Of the first request it says that when a player is given ten days' notice of his unconditional release, such player should be permitted immediately to negotiate a new contract wherever he desires, but that at present he is not allowed to sign with any team outside the league in which he is playing.

Of the second request—that national association players shall receive ten days' notice before he can be released, unconditionally—the statement argues that under his contract, "a player is bound for life or so long as the manager wants him, while the manager is not bound for the fraction of a year."

The statement asks that a contract made binding on both player and club owner. Of release, the statement contends that players have a right to know under what terms they are sent from one club to another. One request of the fraternity is that clubs furnish free traveling expenses for a player's traveling expenses be paid by the club to which they belong from their homes to the training camps.

It argues that as a player reports for duty six weeks before the season starts and is not under salary, but meantime plays in exhibition games, "in many cases at a profit to his employer," he should at least have all his expenses paid.

Another request deals with the release of veteran players. The fraternity argues that when a player is reaching the end of his baseball career and is no longer wanted by his club, the player should be permitted to stay as long as he can to obtain a position, and not sold under such agreement "as a surplus good."

If the request that a player be notified in writing of the imposition of a fine or of his suspension the statement contends that the player has no right to be used to gratify a manager's personal spite.

The request concerning the waiver rule, according to the statement, is to protect against sending a player to a minor league, the contention being that a player should be permitted to stay as high in his profession as he can find employment. Denial is made of the right of a club to send a man to a lower classification of league to strengthen some team which it owns or because it can get a certain player for him.

Ritchie-Cross Ready for Gong

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—While Ritchie, the lightweight boxing champion, and Leach, Cross, of this city, will meet for a ten-round bout here tonight, the postponement of the bout from October 29, because Cross was then suffering an injury to a muscle at his side, has furnished both boxers with ample time to get into condition.

Ritchie has never boxed in New York, but his possession of the title naturally makes him a strong favorite over the local man. Cross is considered such a clever ring general, however, that the champions may have to extend himself to dispose of his man.

Yale Finds a Star Quarter

(By Associated Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 10.—With the exception of Halfback Alnoworth and the Yale football players came out of the Brown game Saturday without injury. Alnoworth has a gash on his head, but probably will be able to play against Princeton Saturday.

The play of the Blue against Brown afforded Yale followers much encouragement, although the team has not yet displayed its usual form for the big games. That Wilson played so well at quarter was the most encouraging sign for with only a few days practice he had nearly as well as Cornish, who is out of the game for the rest of the season with injuries.

Austrian Comes Here to Learn Minor League Meeting Tues.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—An athletic envoy from Austria will arrive in New York tomorrow to investigate the athletic system of the United States as well as the German imperial commission. The visitor is Dr. Otto Hirschman, president of the Austrian Olympic committee, who is acting as the representative of the Austrian government with a view to the adoption of adopting for Austria athletic methods employed in this country.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 10.—President Louis Holtzner, of the Central league, reached Columbus Sunday, being the first delegate with voting power to arrive at the twelfth annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues, which goes into session here Tuesday.

POULTRY, PIGEONS AND LIVE STOCK

Georgia Poultry Shows

THIS year has seen a large number of poultry shows conducted throughout the south, and especially in this state, and it has been much more interest centered in the exhibition than has been in the past. At every fair a splendid poultry department has been provided, and while the entries have not been so large as in former years the quality has been far above the average. A list of judges for this year has been selected, and it is expected that the quality of the birds shown will be of the highest.

The Southern International show coming the first week of December is at the best time of the year to show your birds in good form and have them show to the best advantage. It is fortunate that this show comes at a time when people who are interested in the poultry business are at home, and it is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest.

The Southern International holding this year shows every year that would be held at all if they were held at all. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest.

The entries for this show close on the 21st of November. The number of chickens that can be entered will be 4,000 and when this number is reached the remaining ones will have to be returned, and it will pay you to get your entries in as soon as possible. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest. The show is a time when the quality of the birds shown is of the highest.
